Tanners is family-owned, family-run and resolutely independent. Tanners is run by James Tanner, chairman, who is the fourth generation of the family to work in the company. Good traditional service is what Tanners is about, but 'traditional' in the best sense of the word. In recent years Tanners has won many important national awards and accolades acknowledging the firm as one of the very best wine merchants in the UK.

Tanners has branches in Shrewsbury, Bridgnorth, Hereford, Chester, Welshpool and Llandudno Junction.

Tanners House Wines

The Tanners Buying team works hardest of all to ensure our Tanners label wines reflect the very best of their type; great positive flavours from both classic and emerging areas.

These are good, honest wines that will not let you down, whether they have been established for decades like Tanners Claret, or are a new discovery like Tanners Douro Red. None is selected on price alone, each must bring the identity of the region to your table and be a wine you can rely on - after all, they are made by the best winemakers in the world!
